

Fun4theBrain Privacy Policy

Last Updated September 1, 2020

Fun4theBrain does NOT collect personally identifiable information from children. Aggregated information collected from our visitors is intended for internal use only.

Fun4theBrain is supported by advertisements which are served by third-party companies. Fun4theBrain uses contextual advertising rather than interest-based advertising. Contextual ads are not targeted to a specific user.

PERSONAL INFORMATION

Fun4theBrain does not collect or solicit any personally identifiable information from children. There are no contests or chat features on Fun4theBrain. We do provide an option to subscribe to our newsletter. A warning is placed by the signup to restrict ages to 18+.

ADVERTISING

Ads that appear on Fun4theBrain come from our advertising partner, Google. These networks may use aggregated information about your visit to this site, such as the number of times you have viewed an ad (but not your name, address, email address, or other personal information), to serve ads to you on this site. Some ads are targeted specifically to the content within Fun4theBrain.com and we have taken careful measures to ensure that these ads link only to family friendly advertisers. In response to the new COPPA rules, Fun4theBrain.com does not permit behaviorally targeted ads on its site, and instead only shows contextually-based ads or other carefully-selected ads which are not based on a user's browsing behavior.

COOKIES

Fun4theBrain may use cookies to collect information about your website use and devices. A cookie is a data file that is placed on your computer or device when you play games on Fun4theBrain. It is used primarily to store information about game levels so you can resume game play on your next visit. If you choose to disable cookies or adjust privacy settings on your device, some features of Fun4theBrain may not function properly.

DATA SHARING

Fun4theBrain does not collect personally identifiable information from children.

ANALYTICS

Fun4theBrain works with analytics companies that provide us with information regarding website traffic. This information is used solely to support internal operations.
